

What kinds of expenses may be included under state administrative costs?

Allowable administrative costs are for management and supervisory activities such as salaries, rent, supplies, and travel.